

Dott. MIRKO FORTI

 mirko.forti@unitus.it

Mirko Forti is a postdoctoral researcher in EU law at the University of Tuscia (Italy), where he collaborates with the Academy of Law and Migration. His research activities focus on fundamental rights issues and socio-political concerns arising from the digitalization of EU border control and migration management activities, on which he has widely published.

He has acted as an invited expert on migration law issues for various organizations, including the European Center of Excellence on Countering Hybrid Treats.